

FULBRIGHT DISTINGUISHED AWARDS IN TEACHING PROGRAMS FOR INTERNATIONAL TEACHERS

Empowering Teachers, Inspiring Classrooms Worldwide

The Fulbright Distinguished Awards in Teaching Programs for International Teachers (Fulbright DAI) brings international primary and secondary teachers to the United States for a semester-long program to pursue individual or group projects, take courses for professional development at a host university, observe, and share their expertise with U.S. colleagues in K-12 schools.

- Be a Philippine citizen
- Be teachers of English (or in training), based outside Metro Manila
- Hold at least a Bachelor's degree with a strong academic record (Master's preferred)
- Have no more than 7 years of teaching experience
- Show potential to balance teaching Filipino while pursuing professional growth in the U.S.

Why Apply?

Enhance your teaching career with international experience

Gain confidence in English fluency

Become a cultural ambassador for the Philippines

Expand your global network of educators and friends

- Round-trip international travel
- Monthly living allowance
- Program support and academic fees
- Professional development opportunities
- Cultural immersion and exchange in U.S. communities

Required Documents

- Completed online application
- Official or certified transcript of records from all colleges/universities attended
- Certified true copy of diploma (not original)
- Three letters of reference (forms are found on the online application)
- Letter of Institutional Support (should come from the University Head/Chancellor/University President/VP for Academic Affairs) printed on an official school letterhead
- Copy of passport
- TOEFL or IELTS score report (if available)