 - * Therefore, the total rating of the learner in the combined criteria is 156.
- The total rating shall be used in ranking all the learners.

4. The criteria in selecting the incoming Grade 7 learners in Legislated Science High School (LSHS), Regional Science High School (RSHS) and Science, Technology and Engineering (STE) Schools are as follows:

Average Rating from Grade 5's 1st to 4th Quarter to Grade 6's 1st to 2nd Quarter in the following subjects: 45%

- Science (15%)
- Mathematics (15%)
- English (15%)

General Average from Grade 5's 1st to 4th Quarter to Grade 6's 1st to 2nd Quarter 30%

Type of School

- SPED and Special Science Elementary Schools 25%
- Higher Education Institution/State Universities and Colleges WITH admission test 25%
- Central/Pilot/Private/Regular/Non-Central 20%

Note: The type of School from where the learners came from is given points since learners from SPED, Special Science Elementary Schools, and identified HEIs/SUCs underwent selection process and qualifying examination.

Example:

Average Rating of Grade 5's 1st to 4th Quarter to Grade 6's 1st to 2nd Quarter in the following subjects:

- Therefore, the total rating of the qualified applicant would be 96.03, the sum of the points earned based on the established criteria. This would be the basis of ranking, getting the final 80 learners who would compose the Grade 7 STE/LSHS and RSHS learners S.Y. 2021-2022.

5. Each SSES must admit a maximum of seventy (70) pupils, with a maximum of two (2) sections only. STE schools should have a maximum 40 students per class/section, while RSHS and LSHS should have a maximum 35 students per class/section. STE schools shall have a maximum of two sections only, while RSHS and LSHS can have more than two sections depending on the sufficiency of resources.
6. In case SSES, LSHS, RSHS and STE schools have not yet identified qualified applicants, only parents or guardians or any adult representative in the family are allowed to submit the required documents in the preferred school. Health protocols shall be observed when they would opt to submit their documents onsite. Schools may also establish online submission mechanism of the documents.
